THE TRUST CONTRACT

For the purpose of ABCP Issuance, BEIED and China Industrial International Trust entered into the Trust Contract, the principal terms of which are as follows:

Date: 20 November 2024

Parties:

- (a) BEIED, as the settlor of the Trust; and
- (b) China Industrial International Trust, as the trustee under the Trust Contract and the administration agency of the Trust.

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief, having made all reasonable enquiries, China Industrial International Trust and its ultimate beneficial owner(s) were Independent Third Parties of the Company as at the date of this announcement.

Underlying Assets

The Underlying Assets represents (i) all the rights, interests, benefits and gains (present and future, existing and contingent) with respect to the Subsidy Receivables; (ii) all receivables due or to be due shortly attributable to the Subsidy Receivables; (iii) all proceeds from the transfer, sale, auction, sell-off or otherwise disposal of the Subsidy Receivables; (iv) the right to request, sue, recover or receive all payables in relation to the Subsidy Receivables; and (v) benefits arising from the Subsidy Receivables and enforcement of all rights and legal remedies in relation to the Subsidy Receivables.

Subsidy Receivables comprise government renewable energy subsidies which are expected to be received in or around September 2027 by 22 photovoltaics and wind power project companies of the Group in respect of their respective photovoltaics and wind power generation projects located in Anhui, Gansu, Hebei, Hunan, Inner Mongolia, Shandong, Shanxi, Xinjiang and Yunnan provinces, Xizang Autonomous Region and Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region of the PRC with a total grid connected installed capacity of 1,084.30MW as of the Initial Benchmark Date.

In accordance with the Relevant PRC Energy Laws and Regulations, Subsidy Receivables will be paid by the Renewable Energy Development Fund* (可再生能源發展基金) established by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC (中國財政部), the National Development and Reform Commission (國家發展和改革委員會) and the National Energy Administration (國家能源局) of the PRC for promoting the development of the new energy industry.

Pursuant to the electricity purchase and sale agreements, the Group's photovoltaics and wind power project companies will receive the new energy subsidies as accounts receivables. There is no specific settlement term in terms of the accounts receivables of new energy subsidies in the electricity purchase and sale agreements entered into between photovoltaics or wind power project companies of the Group and the grid companies. Based on the Company's previous experiences, such accounts receivables of new energy subsidies are expected to be settled within two to three years. For the purpose of the proposed Disposal and the ABCP Issuance, the Company has selected the accounts receivables of new energy subsidies that are free from any encumbrances as the Underlying Assets.

As at the Initial Benchmark Date, the unaudited carrying value of the Underlying Assets was approximately RMB3,000,133,715.

Validity and effective date of the Trust Contract

The Trust Contract shall be valid on the date when the legal representative(s) or authorized representative(s) of both BEIED and China Industrial International Trust sign (or seal) and affix the official seal (or the contract seal) onto the Trust Contract, and shall take effect subject to BEIED's obtaining of all required internal approval(s), including without limitation, the approval of the Disposal and the transactions contemplated thereunder by the Shareholders in the SGM.

As at the date of this announcement, (a) to (g) of the Conditions Precedent have been fulfilled, while item number (h) to (j) of the Conditions Precedent will be satisfied after obtaining the Shareholders' approval in the SGM and the remaining Conditions Precedent will be fulfilled after the ABCP Issuance.

Consideration and Size of ABCP

The ABCP shall be issued in the size of RMB3,000 million, which represents a discount of approximately RMB133,715 to the unaudited carrying value of the Underlying Assets of approximately RMB3,000,133,715 as at the Initial Benchmark Date. The consideration under the Trust Contract will be the same as the issue size of the ABCP as at the Initial Benchmark Date.

The consideration and size of the ABCP were determined after arm's length negotiations between BEIED and China Industrial International Trust based on the value of the Underlying Assets.

China Industrial International Trust shall transfer the proceeds from the ABCP Issuance, being approximately RMB3,000 million to the designated bank account of BEIED on the delivery date of the Underlying Assets.

Redemption of Unqualified Assets

Pursuant to the Trust Contract, BEIED or China Industrial International Trust shall notify the other party any discovery of Unqualified Assets within 5 working days after discovery. China Industrial International Trust shall have the right to inform BEIED in writing to redeem such Unqualified Assets in accordance with the terms of the Trust Contract and BEIED shall transfer the amount which is equivalent to such Unqualified Assets to the trust account within 2 working days.

Limitation of liability

BEIED shall not be liable for, among others, compensatory damages and compensatory obligations for Subsidy Receivables that are unrecoverable and Underlying Assets that are difficult to recover.

THE UNDERWRITING AGREEMENT

In connection with the ABCP Issuance, BEIED proposes to enter into an underwriting agreement with China Industrial International Trust and the underwriter(s), pursuant to which, the underwriter(s) will be responsible for the issue of the ABCP on NAFMII. To the best of the Directors' information, knowledge and belief, BEIED is in the process of identifying and appointing qualified financial institution(s) established in the PRC, which is/are expected to be Independent Third Party(ies) of the Company, to act as the underwriter(s) of the ABCP Issuance. As at the date of this announcement, BEIED has neither entered into any underwriting agreement, nor entered into any binding or non-binding term sheet, in respect of the ABCP Issuance.

The underwriting fee payable by BEIED is expected to be approximately RMB3 million per year, the calculation based on an underwriting charge ratio of approximately 0.1% per year and three-year issuance period, which is expected to be determined by arm's length negotiations between BEIED and the underwriter(s) with reference to the issue size of the ABCP, the relevant PRC regulations and the prevailing market rate in relation to service fee payable to the underwriter(s) in an asset securitization project.

In case of any discrepancy between the above and the actual terms of the underwriting agreement, the Company will make further announcement(s) as and when appropriate to fully comply with the requirements under the Listing Rules.

FINANCIAL IMPACT AND USE OF PROCEEDS FROM THE ABCP ISSUANCE

Immediately upon the completion of the Disposal for the purpose of the ABCP Issuance, BEIED will cease to have rights or interests in the Underlying Assets. As at the Initial Benchmark Date, the unaudited carrying value of the Underlying Assets was approximately RMB3,000,133,715. It is anticipated that the proceeds from the ABCP Issuance would amount to approximately RMB3,000 million. As a result, the Company is expected to realize a net loss of approximately RMB133,715 from the ABCP Issuance, which represents the difference between the proceeds from the ABCP Issuance and the unaudited carrying value of the Underlying Assets as at the Initial Benchmark Date. The Group intends to use approximately 70% of the proceeds from the ABCP Issuance for the repayment of existing debts and the remaining approximately 30% of the proceeds from the ABCP Issuance for daily operations of the Group (which include, among other things, day-to-day operating expenses, investments, equipment purchases and maintenance expenses).

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE ABCP ISSUANCE AND THE TRUST CONTRACT

The Board believes that the ABCP Issuance can diversify the Group's fund-raising channels to access low-cost capital, which in turn can be used to improve the financing structure of the Group and promote its operating activities and investments. It also allows the Group to achieve the goal of reducing the balance of accounts receivable and optimize the debt to asset ratio of the Group. Upon the Disposal for the purpose of ABCP Issuance, the Directors believe that it will accelerate the overall turnover of the Group's assets and increase the overall revenue generated. Furthermore, the proposed transfer of the Underlying Assets through this arrangement will accelerate the collection of the accounts receivable of the Group.

The Directors consider that the terms of the Trust Contract and the Disposal are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
